

Syllabus

The mission of York College is to transform lives through Christ-centered education and to equip students for lifelong service to God, family, and society.

COM 322 Technical Theatre

Course Description

An in-depth study which provides students with guided, practical experience in working with the technical aspects of theatre. This course will cover set construction, costuming, lighting, and design. Students will be required to complete a project which demonstrates their acquired skills.

Course Prerequisite(s): COM 173 Introduction to Theatre

Course Learning Outcomes:

1. Learners will demonstrate the ability to design a set for a theatrical production.
2. Learners will demonstrate the ability to construct and paint stage scenery.
3. Learners will gain a basic understanding of sound technology for stage.
4. Learners will be able to create special effects on stage.

This course is in partial fulfillment of the following Program Learning Outcomes in bold:

- 1. The learner will be able to recognize the theories and principles of communication.
2. The learner will be able to demonstrate proficiency in the writing skills found in the communication discipline.
- 3. The learner will be able to utilize communication performance skills
4. The learner will be able to apply the principles of human communication to practice.
5. The learner will demonstrate a preparedness for entry in their respective area of communication and/or graduate studies.

This course is in partial fulfillment of the following General Education Program Learning Outcomes:

Critical Thinking

- a) Define a problem or critical issue and account for information presented
- b) Understand and interpret relationships among concepts

Effective Communication

- a) Construct and organize content in a manner appropriate for the intended audience

Absences and Tardiness

York College believes that regular class attendance is essential to learning; however, it provides for necessary absences. Punctuality in all classes is required. Individual teachers set their own attendance standards. However, you cannot be absent from any course for more than the equivalent of three weeks of a semester and receive credit in that course. Absences in excess of this amount constitute failure in the course and may result in withdrawal from the course with a grade of "WF" (withdrawn failing).

Academic Honesty

Academic dishonesty is taken seriously by York College. Cheating on assignments or examinations, plagiarizing, or any other act which violates the rights of another student in academic work or that involves misrepresentation of your own work may result in a grade reduction on the assignment/quiz/test or a grade reduction in the class (including the possibility of failing the class). If a student is found responsible for academic dishonesty, a report is filed with the Provost's office and is considered a violation of the Honor Code.

Special Needs

If you have or believe you have a disability, you may wish to self-identify. You can do so by providing documentation to Mrs. Marti Soderholm, Director of Special Populations. She may be contacted by phone at (402) 363-5616 or e-mail: msoderholm@york.edu for an appointment. Pending the results of your evaluation, appropriate accommodations may then be provided for you.

If you have a condition which may affect your ability to exit safely from the premises in an emergency or which may cause an emergency during class, you are encouraged to discuss this in confidence with the instructor and/or the ADA Compliance Officer. If you have general questions about the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), contact the ADA Compliance Officer, Todd Sheldon, at (402) 363-5601 or by e-mail: tlsheldon@york.edu